RE: TDCM version 3.2

The Department of Education is pleased to announce the availability of TDCM version 3.2. This information will be available on the Federal Student Aid Download (FSAdownload) Web site, located at http://fsadownload.ed.gov.

TDCM version 3.2 provides the following enhancements:

- A new security banner required by the U.S. Department of Homeland Security for internal users to authenticate the login was added.
- The Messages tab will now display the message "Loading page…please wait…" to the user indicating that the search request is being processed. The "Go" button will be disabled during this process.
  - The search now returns paginated results. 100 results per page are shown and users can move forward or backward by page to load additional results.
  - When using the Expand function, the view of the record list will start at the first record instead of the current record being viewed.
- The Archive tab will now display the message "Loading page…please wait…" to the user indicating that the search request is being processed. The "Go" button will be disabled during this process.
  - The search now returns paginated results. 100 results per page are shown and users can move forward or backward by page to load additional results.
